RE: Jonathan Martin
Docket No. 13-CR 37-01

Report of Offender Under Supervision

Dear Judge Chesler:

On January 16, 2014, the above referenced was sentenced by Your Honor to a 96-month-term of imprisonment, followed by five years of supervised release, for a distribution of child pornography offense. The following special conditions were ordered: computer monitoring, mental health treatment, restricted contact with minors, polygraph examination, self-employment/ business disclosure, and sex offender registration.

On January 11, 2019, Martin was released from incarceration and commenced his supervision term. Upon his release, he initially resided with his sister in Belleville, New Jersey. Later, he secured his own apartment in that same town. The offender has worked a few jobs, which he felt did not pay well, and is currently employed at Dodge Chrysler as a car salesman. He has been compliant with his conditions of supervision. Monitoring software has been installed on his computer, and he is scheduled for a polygraph next month.

As documented in our Presentence Report, dated November 2013, since the age of 15, Martin has suffered with chronic tension headaches. He has received many different types of treatment to relieve the pain, which did not work. In addition, since 2009, the offender underwent several spine surgeries, and a cervical spinal cord simulator, which also did not provide relief. This was in addition to several failed medications.

In July 2019, his doctor recommended and prescribed to him, medical marijuana. He has provided to the U.S. Probation Office, a copy of the prescription and the identification card. He is prescribed one ounce per 30 days. The offender has reported that it has made a favorable difference in his level of pain.

Attached is a Probation Form 12A, Report of Offender Under Supervision, for Your Honor's review and signature. We have no objections to this prescription due to the offender's medical history, and positive outcome thus far. However, Your Honor has the authority to make the final decision on this matter, not the U.S. Probation Office.

Should the Court have any questions, please contact the undersigned at (973) 223-0977.

Respectfully submitted,

SUSAN M. SMALLEY, Chief
U.S. Probation Officer
